

I Am God's Man

Brad Eberly

6/98

Chorus

I am God's man, therefore I will be
A Man of God, enslaved, yet free.
For me to live is Christ, that's all.
My soul desire is to heed His call.
I am God's man.

Verse 1

Now I do not claim great wisdom,
But I see the signs of the time.
I see the desperate struggle
For the heart and the will and the mind.
I see the seduction of many
Who casually call Jesus Lord.
With their lips they confess their allegiance;
With their lives they go back on their word.
I want a heart that's undivided.
I won't be driven by the wind.
I will hold on to truth; with courage stand decided;
Sold out with a passion deep within.

Verse 2

G
In the midst of a war that is hidden,
Em7

I see the enemy's hand
Am7
Insidiously trying to tempt us
Dsus D

To compromise our stand.
G
Well I want be known as faithful;
Em7
As one of the Lord's mighty men.

Am7
With wisdom, discernment and courage;
Dsus D
To stand immovable with Him.

Am7 D Am7 D
I will put aside the vain things of the flesh;
Am7 D Em7 D/F# G
The pride and haughty eyes' all that wars with righteousness;
Am7 D Am7 D
The lust for what's not mine, and hands that destroy life;
Am7 D Em7 D/F# G
A heart and tongue that lies and a will that stirs up strife.
Am7 G D/F# G D/F# Em7
I be..... long to the Lord alone;
Am7 G D/F# Em7 Dsus D
And the life I live is not my own....
